

CERTIFICATE

This is to certify that

LESIA HLADKOSKOK

successfully completed a 60-hour professional development course

‘Developing Teaching Skills in ESP’

on the British Council
Online Teacher Community platform

November 2021 – February 2022
June 2022 – July 2022

Nicholas Thomas
Director
British Council Ukraine

COURSE CONTENT

Module 1. Understanding Differentiation in ESP

- The various ways the learners can differ
- The differentiation of tasks and the achievement outcomes
- Differentiated support and activities in the context

Module 2. Understanding Resources in ESP

- teaching aids and supplementary materials
- the issues and advantages of using coursebooks
- common reference resources and their specific uses

Module 3. Engaging with learning technologies, mobile learning

- language learning on the mobile devices
- apps to develop learners' productive skills in the classroom
- chat tools to facilitate language practice and feedback

Module 4. Understanding lesson management in ESP

- classroom interaction patterns and activities
- learner groupings, problems with pair and group work
- plan for the management of interaction

Module 5. Engaging with assessment for learning in ESP

- principles of effective questioning
- effective feedback strategies, learners' self and peer assessment
- assessment for learning strategies in their context

Modules 6. Understanding special educational needs

- a range of special educational needs and their effect on teaching and learning
- the difference between the medical model approach and social model approach
- a set of teaching strategies which promote inclusive learning